Overall	6.5	Competent User
Test	Score	Your result explained	Advice to improve your score
Listening	7.0	Test takers at Band 7 can typically follow extended speech and understand detailed instructions to complete tasks, including some involving complex ideas. They can identify ideas, attitudes, opinions or purposes which are implied by the speaker but not directly stated. They can easily understand meaning, including references within and between sentences, without having to process individual words and structures. They can understand a wide range of vocabulary, including some idiomatic, technical, and academic language, even when the language and ideas are complex.	Listen to current affairs and documentary programmes, or online talks, without pausing or repeating the recording. Try to remember as much as you can, including new words, main ideas, specific points, and their relationship to each other. Afterward, reconstruct what you've heard. How much are you able to reconstruct? Listen more and try to increase the amount that you can reconstruct. When speakers don't directly say what they mean, we use strategies to guess their meaning. What are some of these strategies that you use in your own language? Use the same strategies to understand them in English.
Reading	6.0	Test takers at Band 6 can typically deal with a range of factual and opinion-based texts that may be relatively complex and dense with information. They are good at using their vocabulary knowledge to create meaning, both within and across sentences, on a range of general topics and some specialised ones. They can understand implied meanings, and have some ability to understand somewhat complex opinions and arguments. They can generally use reading strategies such as skimming and scanning, and can generally synthesize information and draw inferences.	Try to read different types of texts, including general and academic texts, and not just in your subject area. In general interest articles, the main point may come in a different place than you expect. In academic texts there will be fewer opinions, or they may be harder to spot. On the other hand, they can be dense with information. Be aware of the differences, and adjust the reading strategies you use depending on the text you're reading. Decide when to read carefully and when to read quickly. In any case, you may want to give yourself a set amount of time, so that even your careful reading is done more quickly and efficiently.
Speaking	7.5	Test takers at this band can typically speak with ease, clearly and at length, although with some repetition, self-correction, or hesitation to search for words or grammar. Speaking is generally well-organised, and ideas are generally clear and well linked. They use a range of vocabulary to discuss a variety of topics, and can use some less common or idiomatic vocabulary, although not always accurately. They can paraphrase well if needed. They can use a range of grammar structures. Sentences are frequently accurate, although there are some errors. Pronunciation is generally natural and clear, but with occasional problems. They are usually easy to understand, and their accent does not have much effect on understanding.	Talk to other people about abstract and difficult current issues. Focus on delivering your ideas well in presentations and discussions, minimising hesitation as much as possible. Ask yourself: Am I arranging and conveying my thoughts in the best possible way? Am I using the best possible words and phrases that I know to express my ideas? How can I vary my delivery so that my ideas are understood better? Then work on those things you're not completely happy with yet. Continue reading and listening to natural English language materials and TV to note precise words and particularly effective ways of saying things. Think about how you might use these yourself.

Continue to develop your awareness of how to read different types of texts differently. What features does that particular type of text typically have? How is information structured and arranged in such texts? Use your knowledge of these and approach the reading task in an appropriate way. Limit the amount of time you give yourself to read a text. As an exercise, try to find several texts on the same topic so that you can compare opinions, views, definitions and conceptualisations of ideas. Academics often make fine distinctions, so see if you can determine these. You may even try to see if you can capture those differences by writing a one sentence summary.
Reading	8.0	Test takers at Band 8 can typically deal effectively with a variety of factual and opinion-based texts that are often complex and dense with information. They are skilled at using their very wide vocabulary knowledge to create meaning, from sentence level to text level, on a range of general, specialised, and technical topics. They are good at following complex arguments and distinguishing between main ideas and supporting details, and at understanding attitude, opinion and implication. They are good at using appropriate reading strategies, such as skimming and scanning, and at synthesizing information and drawing inferences.	Talk to other people about abstract and difficult current issues. Tuition Guarantee

In order to provide you with the ability to plan for the financial requirements of attending the University of Alberta beginning in September 2021, we are pleased to provide you with a tuition guarantee for your program. Your annual tuition for your Master of Science (course-based) program is $11,000.00 CAD (Canadian Dollars) and will be charged each year for two years. Your guaranteed total tuition amount for a standard length Master of Science (course-based) degree is $22,000.00 CAD.

2021 Cohort Master of Science (course-based) Tuition Summary Chart
Year 1	Year 2	Total
$11,000.00 + fees*	$11,000.00 + fees *	$22,000.00 + fees*
*Fees in addition to tuition are estimated at $1,800.00 CAD per year, but are subject to approval and change in accordance with University of Alberta policies and procedures.

Please note the following important points related to the above tuition guarantee:

- This guaranteed rate is only applicable to tuition, and does not include other fees associated with the cost of your program, such as Mandatory Non-Instructional Fees, textbooks, residence costs, food, etc.
- For students in standard programs who register in courses with specialized fees, these extra fees (the difference between a course standard fee and a course specialized fee) are not covered by the guarantee and will represent an additional cost to you.
- Students attending the University of Alberta on a study permit follow a program based tuition model which means that your annual tuition will be assessed regardless of how many courses you register in. This means that even if you complete your program in less than two years, you will still be required to pay the total tuition noted in the above table.
- Despite the above, this annual tuition rate is guaranteed for four years, even though your program is anticipated to take two years to complete. This means that if you have not completed your minimum required credits after two years, you will not have to pay tuition to complete those credits in Year 3 and Year 4, only the associated fees.
- This tuition guarantee only applies to the standard course requirements necessary to complete your program (i.e., up to the total number of credits required to complete your program, as set out in the University Calendar). The guarantee does not include the costs for any additional coursework, including courses that may need to be repeated due to withdrawals or failing grades. For additional coursework taken in Year 3 and Year 4 that is beyond the total number of credits normally required to complete your degree program, you will be charged the per course rate established for your admission cohort.
- Any additional coursework taken after Year 4 will be charged at the per course rate established for that year.
- If you change programs at the University of Alberta, the tuition guarantee provided within this letter may no longer apply, in which case you would be provided with a new guarantee at the time the program change.

For more information about tuition and fees please see Tuition and Fees on the FGSR website. Each year you will receive a Fee Assessment through Bear Tracks, which will include your individual invoice for your tuition fees and other costs associated with your specific choice of courses (eg. costs for field trips, specialized supplies, etc.).

Visit the site to learn more about your offer of admission, the Credential Verification Process, the student visa application process for international students, and preparing for your first semester of study. You are responsible for completing the Credential Verification Process and returning all applicable forms in a timely manner.

After submitting your response form, a nonrefundable, nontransferable deposit of $500 must be paid either online (via credit card) or by mail (via check or money order) in order to secure your position in the program. Please make your check or money order payable to "Carnegie Mellon University" (please mail to the Office of Admissions). The credit card payment method may be completed via a secure website (<https://commerce.cashnet.com/CMU151?itemcode=151-HNZ-EDEP>).
